Harlem Wizards Upset PV Dream Team in Interactive & Exciting Hoops Show

(Collegeville, PA, November 13, 2023) — Following an exhilarating evening of basketball entertainment hosted by Perkiomen Valley School District Foundation on Saturday, November 11th, the Harlem Wizards dashed any hope the PV Dream Team had of a victory this year. During this highly anticipated matchup, the Harlem Wizards brought their unique blend of skill, humor, and showmanship to Perkiomen Valley School District in a game that ended in a 22-point victory.

The Harlem Wizards, known for their engaging style of play and interaction with the audience, kept fans on the edge of their seats with a combination of skillful ball handling, impressive trick shots, and a touch of silliness that brought laughter and cheers from spectators of all ages. Despite the PV Dream Teams's valiant efforts, the Wizards' dazzling talent display and trademark comedic flair proved too much to handle. The final score of 107:85 reflects the Wizards' dominance on the court.

"We had an incredible time hosting the Harlem Wizards. We know every time they come to town, we bring the community together and for night of fun," said Kristin Craven, Executive Director of Perkiomen Valley School District Foundation. "They brought a contagious energy that engaged the crowd from start to finish. While our team may not have secured the win as we had hoped, I know our team of teachers, parents, and kids alike left with unforgettable memories."

Perkiomen Valley School District Foundation would like to thank their sponsor, WTW, and PHM Associates for making this event possible.
